

Problem of the Week

Problem E

Partly Salted

When one kilogram of salt is added to a solution of salt and water, the solution becomes $\frac{1}{3}$ salt by mass. One kilogram of water is then added to the new solution resulting in a solution that is $\frac{3}{10}$ salt by mass.

What fraction of the original solution was salt?

NaCl

+

H₂O

